KEY NOTES

- Joined the Browns in 2021 after spending the past eight years coaching on the college level.
- Began coaching career as a graduate assistant offensive line coach at Nevada, where he helped develop future Browns All-Pro guard Joel Bitonio, who became the second-highest draft pick in school history (second round, 2014).
- Served as offensive line coach, recruiting coordinator, strength coach and travel coordinator at West Virginia State from 2015-16. His offensive line helped the team set numerous school records including the most touchdowns and points scored.
- Spent three seasons (2017-19) coaching the tight ends at LSU, where he developed future NFL tight ends Foster Moreau (fourth round, 2019), Stephen Sullivan (seventh round, 2020) and Thaddeus Moss (undrafted free agent). Moss set the LSU single-season record for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end. Helped the Tigers capture the FBS National Championship after a 13-0 season in 2019. LSU led the nation in total offense, scoring offense and red zone offense in 2019 and finished second in passing offense.
- Native of Miramar, Fla., and four-year starter at right tackle at the University of Louisiana. Anchored an offensive line that finished seventh in the country rushing in both 2007 and 2008.
- Earned a bachelor's degree in management information systems from the University of Louisiana and worked in Baton Rouge as an IT project manager until pursuing a coaching career in 2013. Earned master's degrees in education leadership from the University of Nevada and liberal arts from LSU.
- Decoster and his wife, Amber, have a daughter, Aria, and a son, Zeke.
