NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

CLEVELAND BROWNS (5-3) VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS (2-5)

GAME #8, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2026 - 12:00 P.M. (CST)
CAESARS SUPERDOME - NEW ORLEANS, LA.

THE MATCHUP

Despite the New Orleans Saints standing at 2-5 following their Week Eight bye, the New Orleans Saints stand only one game out of first place in the NFC South with two consecutive games at the Caesars Superdome to play, including a November 15 matchup against division leader Carolina.

But before their second divisional contest of the season, the Saints will return to action on Sunday, when they host the Cleveland Browns. The division race is very tight and New Orleans has more than half of its season to play.

The Saints will look to rebound rested after the bye following a 16-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in Paris, France.

The Saints were bested in yards (343-281) and turnover differential (minus-one) against Pittsburgh, but the defense allowed the Steelers to score only one touchdown in the red zone in four trips, while Edge rushers Carl Granderson and Chase Young led the pressure quarterback Aaron Rodgers with 1.5 sacks apiece.

Pittsburgh took the ball first in the contest and advanced into New Orleans territory on a 29-yard carry by running back Jaylen Warren, but the Black and Gold stopped them at the five-yard line, forcing a 28-yard field goal. New Orleans tied the score in the second quarter on a 38-yard field goal by kicker Daniel Carlson. With Pittsburgh scoring a touchdown on their next possession, quarterback Tyler Shough and the Saints responded with a 12-play, 52-yard drive that ended with one-yard TD throw to wide receiver Devaughn Vele. Pittsburgh booted a field goal as time expired in the half to take the lead.

Shough, enjoying an excellent year, led the Saints down to the Pittsburgh ten-yard line in the first drive of the second half, but threw an interception on second down. The Steelers then advanced to the Saints 14-yard line, but Granderson and Young dropped Rodgers for a six-yard loss and the final three points of the contest. New Orleans had another opportunity early on their first drive in the fourth quarter, but Carlson's 52-yard field goal attempt went wide right.

THIS WEEK IN THE NFC SOUTH: The Atlanta Falcons (3-5) play the Cincinnati Bengals (5-2) in Madrid, Spain with an 8:30 a.m. CT kick, the Carolina Panthers (3-4) host the Denver Broncos (6-2) and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (3-6) play at the Chicago Bears (5-2) at Soldier Field on Sunday Night Football.

THE HEAD COACHES

Named the 19th head coach in New Orleans Saints history on February 11, 2025, Kellen Moore joined the Black and Gold after serving as the offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2024. In his first season at the helm in New Orleans, Moore rallied the team from a 2-10 start to win four of the final five games. The Saints went 4-0 in the month of December, going undefeated in the month for the first time since 2011 and only the third time in franchise history. Moore put his imprint on the team in year one on offense, mixing a combination of rookie QB Tyler Shough, protected by a pair of promising young tackles in Kelvin Banks Jr. and Taliese Fuaga, along with WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson. Including Shough and Banks, whose 1,066 snaps on offense was a club-high to earn PFWA All-Rookie honors. Moore and his staff successfully integrated a total of five rookies into the starting lineup and important rotational roles. Before joining the Eagles in 2024, where the Super Bowl LIX champions ranked eighth in net yards per game (367.2), seventh in points per game (27.2) and second in rushing yards per game (179.3), Moore served as offensive coordinator of the Los Angeles Chargers in 2023 and the Dallas Cowboys from 2019-22 after starting his coaching career as quarterbacks coach in Dallas in 2018. In four seasons as offensive coordinator of the Cowboys, Moore's unit ranked second in the NFL in total offense (391.0 net yards per game) and scoring (27.7 points per game). The Dallas offense was also the league's fourth-best passing offense (264.4 net yards per game) and ranked seventh in rushing offense (126.6 yards per game) over that span.

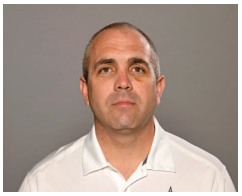

Moore played quarterback at Boise State (2007-11) before playing six seasons in the National Football League with the Detroit Lions (2012-14) and Dallas Cowboys (2015-17).

Personal: Born July 5, 1988, in Prosser, Washington. He and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Halle and Madelyn, and two sons, Kyler and Beckham. His younger brother, Kirby, is the head coach at Washington State.

Todd Monken was hired as the Cleveland Browns 18th full time head coach on Jan. 28, 2026, by Managing and Principal Partners Dee and Jimmy Haslam. Monken brings 34 years of coaching experience, including 26 seasons at the collegiate level and eight in the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Grand Valley State (1989-90) and Notre Dame (1991-92). He then spent seven seasons at Eastern Michigan, tutoring the defensive backs and wide receivers (1993-97) before being elevated to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (1998-99). He went on to coach running backs (2000) and wide receivers (2001) at Louisiana Tech and then served as passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach at Oklahoma State from 2002-04. Monken developed future first-round receivers Dwayne Bowe and Buster Davis as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at LSU (2005-06). Monken broke into the NFL with the Jacksonville Jaguars, spending four seasons (2007-10) as wide receivers coach, before returning to college as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Oklahoma State from 2011-12. His first head-coaching opportunity came after taking over a winless Southern Mississippi program in 2013 and by the end of his campaign, posted a 9-5 record. Monken made a pivot back to the NFL in 2016 as offensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2016-18), also coaching wide receivers his first two seasons (2016-17). Throughout his tenure, his offenses redefined Tampa Bay's record book, as they led the NFL in passing yards (14,130) during that span. In 2019, Monken served as offensive coordinator for the Browns, guiding an offense that featured two receivers (Jarvis Landry and Odell Beckham Jr.) and RB Nick Chubb all eclipse 1,000 scrimmage yards in a season for the first time in franchise history. He then spent three seasons (2020-22) as Georgia's offensive coordinator, helping the Bulldogs capture back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships. Monken led the Baltimore Ravens' offense from 2023-25. Under his guidance, the Ravens ranked near the top of the league in multiple categories, including rushing yards (1st, 166.9 per game), total yards (2nd, 375.6 per game), and points (3rd, 27.9 per game).

COORDINATOR CORNER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORD. PHIL GALIANO

Phil Galiano is in his second full season as the Saints' special teams coordinator. A coaching veteran with 26 years of experience, including ten in the NFL, Galiano spent six seasons (2019-24) as New Orleans' assistant special teams coach before taking over coordinator duties full-time in 2025.

In 2026, Galiano will shepherd a special teams unit featuring a new kicker (Daniel Carlson), a new punter (Ryan Wright) and additions in the return game.

In Galiano's first full season leading the Saints special teams, defensive tackle Nathan Shepherd was named the Week Ten recipient of NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, after he blocked Carolina's 48-yard attempt. Defensive tackle Bryan Bresee had the team's first blocked field goal in Week One against Arizona. Galiano retooled a coverage unit that had their top six tacklers new to the Saints leaderboard from 2024 into 2025, led by linebacker Isaiah Stalbird, who led the club with six stops.

Galiano's work from 2019-24 with Darren Rizzi, who served as coordinator, helped make the kicking game an important key to victory for New Orleans. On coverage units, J.T. Gray's 93 tackles ranked first in the NFL during that span, with the special teams ace selected as an Associated Press All-Pro three times. The punting game also produced the top five seasons in club history for punts inside-the-20-yard line. Since 2019, the Saints have excelled in the return game. Over the seven-season period, the team has been ranked sixth in the National Football League in punt return average (10.3) and are tied for fourth in the leauge with three punts returned for touchdowns.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to consecutive winning seasons (1997-99). The Norristown, Pa. native graduated with a degree in business administration.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR DOUG NUSSMEIER

Doug Nussmeier enters his second season as New Orleans' offensive coordinator in 2026, marking his 11th campaign in the NFL coaching ranks and 12th overall as an offensive coordinator at the NFL and collegiate levels.

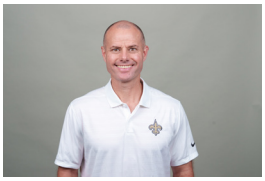

A 25-year coaching veteran, Nussmeier returned to New Orleans in 2025 after originally being a fourth round pick (116th overall) of the Saints in the 1994 NFL Draft out of Idaho, playing four seasons with the Black and Gold. He re-joined the Saints after spending the 2024 season as quarterbacks coach of the Philadelphia Eagles.

In his first season with the Saints coaching staff in 2025, Nussmeier helped the offensive improve steadily throughout the season. Nussmeier and Head Coach Kellen Moore devised a scheme behind rookie signal-caller Tyler Shough that accentuated his abilities and helped the Black and Gold finish the season 5-4. Depite having only nine starts, Shough completeed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,384 yards with ten touchdowns and a 91.3 passer rating, while leading the team in rushing touchdowns to accentuate his athleticism and earn PFWA All-Rookie. By season's end, the Saints had a pair of players - WR Chris Olave and TE Juwan Johnson - for the first time since the 2016 season.

Nussmeier finished his college playing career at the University of Idaho as the program's all-time leading passer with 10,824 career passing yards over five years (1989-93). He won the Walter Payton Award in 1993, which was at the time given annually to the top player in NCAA Division 1-AA after throwing for a program-record 33 touchdown passes and leading the Vandals to a national semifinal berth. Nussmeier was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 1992 and was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

A Portland, Ore. native, Nussmeier and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter, Ashlynn. Garrett played quarterback at LSU from 2021-25 and was a seventh-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2026 NFL Draft.

COORDINATOR CORNER

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR BRANDON STALEY

Brandon Staley is in his second season as defensive coordinator for the Saints in 2026. A 20-year coaching veteran, including the last nine in the NFL and three seasons as head coach of the Los Angeles Chargers, Staley oversaw a Saints unit that made great strides in his first season with New Orleans.

In 2025, New Orleans finished the season ranked ninth in opponent yards per game (299.8), fourth in opponent net passing yards per game (179.2), fifth in forced fumbles (11), sixth in opponent rushing yards per play (3.97) and tenth in opponent red zone touchdown percentrage (53.2). The club did not allow a 300-yard passer. The unit was especially stout on third down, ranking third in the NFL in opponent third down conversion rate (34.3). The 2025 Saints were one of eight teams that finished in the league's top-12 units in EPA (Expected Points Added) against both the run and the pass, including second against the rush.

With edge defenders Cameron Jordan (10.5) and Chase Young (career-high 10.0) each reaching double-digit sacks, the Saints were one of only three teams to have two defenders with at least ten takedowns. LB Demario Davis led the team with 143 tackles and two forced fumbles. CBs Alontae Taylor, whose seven stops for a loss were tied for third in the NFL at the position, and Kool-Aid McKinstry, who led the team with his first three career interceptions and was tied for sixth in the league with 17 pass breakups, enjoyed breakout campaigns. Staley and the defensive backfield coaching staff also successfully integrated a pair of promising rookies into the lineup. CB Quincy Riley was named to the CBS Sports and ESPN.com All-Rookie teams after playing in all 17 games (five starts) and totaling 34 tackles, ten passes defensed (tied for fourth in the NFL among rookies), one interception and one forced fumble. S Jonas Sanker entered the starting lineup in Week Two and led the secondary with 78 stops and ranked second among rookie safeties with three takeaways, tied for first on the team, earning ESPN.com All-Rookie.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/ RUNNING BACKS JOEL THOMAS

Joel Thomas, a 26-year coaching veteran, has tutored the Saints running backs for ten seasons (2015-23 and 2025-present). After spending the 2024 season coaching the New York Giants running backs, the Port Angeles, Wash. native returned to New Orleans in 2025 with the additional title of associate head coach.

In Thomas' ten seasons presiding over the Saints running backs, New Orleans tailbacks have led a balanced attack on the ground and through the air. The Saints' 170 rushing touchdowns are tied for fifth in the NFL and their 18,649 rushing yards rank 13th. A Saints tailback has ranked in the top ten in the NFL in receiving at the position in eight of the ten campaigns of Thomas' Black and Gold tenure, with the 1,084 receptions by Saints running backs the most in the league at the position. Thomas has helped his running backs earn six Pro Bowl selections - Alvin Kamara (2017-21) and Mark Ingram (2017).

Under Thomas' tutelage, Kamara, the Saints' all-time rushing yardage leader, was the only NFL player with at least 1,160 total yards from scrimmage in each of the seven seasons he first coached him, three of them 1,500 or more. In 2023, under Thomas' tutelage, Kamara, the team's all-time rushing leader, became the franchise's all-time leader in yards from scrimmage, rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns. Thomas also coached Ingram, New Orleans' career rushing leader from 2021-24, for six years, including two 1,000-yard campaigns. During his first New Orleans tenure, the Saints ranked in the top six in the NFL in rushing three times (2017, 2018 and 2020).

Thomas lettered at running back at Idaho from 1993-98, where he was a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and conference Player of the Year as a senior and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards and 51 TDs on 765 attempts. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. Thomas earned his degree in public communications in 1998. He served as the head coach for the victorious American team for the 2026 Panini Senior Bowl.

GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1: Detroit Lions 31, Saints 30, September 13 @ Ford Field - Tyler Shough chose the worst day of his young NFL career to post the best day of his NFL career, and it was nearly enough for the New Orleans Saints to pull off one of the most improbable comebacks in franchise history.

But after rallying from a 21-0 deficit in the third quarter, the Saints fell just short in a 31-30, overtime loss to the Lions in the season opener on Sunday at Ford Field in Detroit.

"The defense did a lot of good things in the first half, they competed, they battled. They kept that offense from scoring for the most part," Coach Kellen Moore said. "I think in the second half we started slow again on offense...I think we finally got to that point where we started executing, and I think that allowed us to use some tempo offense to get some more plays to get the ball downfield...I think in all three phases we are going to have some stuff we liked and some stuff we've just got to get better at."

Shough, in his second season and tenth career start, completed 10 of 22 passes for 85 yards and an interception in the first half, after which the Saints trailed 7-0. And he committed turnovers on consecutive possessions in the third quarter – an interception and lost fumble – that helped the Lions post short-field touchdown drives (41 and 25 yards) to take the three-touchdown lead with 8:54 left in the third.

But Shough and the offense created momentum on New Orleans' next drive with a scrambling, 47-yard completion to Chris Olave and from there, he was on a heater. He completed 25 of 34 passes in the second half and overtime, for 325 yards and three touchdowns, as the Saints climbed until they tied the game at 24-24 at the end of regulation.

Shough's 410 passing yards marked a career high, and Olave, a second-team Associated Press All-Pro last year, caught 10 passes for 182 yards as New Orleans scored on four consecutive possessions – three touchdowns and a field goal – before driving and to leave kicker Daniel Carlson in position to end the game on a 62-yard field goal attempt as time expired in regulation.

The kick attempt, which would have been a career best for Carlson, was short and wide right.
The Saints were undeterred.
They won the overtime coin toss, deferred, watched the Lions drive 70 yards in 10 plays to take a 31-24 lead, then mounted their own touchdown drive – 10 plays, 80 yards, including a 20-yard completion to Olave on fourth-and-three from their own 27 to keep the march alive. Shough's eight-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant pulled the Saints to within 31-30 with 1:34 left and from there, they went for two to try to secure the win. But Shough's pass attempt for Bryce Lance sailed out of the back right corner of the end zone, and the comeback fell short.
"I was proud of how we fought as a team and regardless of the adversity or circumstances we kept going ," Shough said. "I just got to play better in the first half. We've got to play better as an offense, get a rhythm going. ...Credit to them, they had some unscouted looks, obviously, it's the first game, there is going to be some new looks. We just have to be able to handle that swing better. It was a good fight to the end."
The total points allowed didn't speak well for the defense, but also it didn't tell the complete story. In the first half, little more could have been demanded or provided by the unit. It allowed a 13-play, 89-yard touchdown drive, but otherwise, it surrendered just 72 yards and appeared to have scored a second-quarter touchdown of its own, until the play was reversed on replay.
On third-and-16 from the Detroit 32-yard line, Saints edge Chase Young blazed around the right end and appeared to sack Lions quarterback Jared Goff. In the process Young forced a fumble that, after a scramble, was recovered by safety Jonas Sanker and returned 7 yards for a touchdown with 9:31 left in the half.
But replay reviewed the fumble, ruled that Goff intended a forward pass, and reversed the relentless effort by Young in knifing into the backfield. Goff was charged with an incompletion and Detroit was allowed to punt.
The defense actually did produce a turnover – following a replay, ironically – on Detroit's next possession. After the Saints were forced to punt following Detroit's non-fumble, the Lions took over with first down at the New Orleans 44.
Goff completed a short, 4-yard pass to running back Jahmyr Gibbs and as Gibbs shimmied and attempted to advance forward, defensive tackle Vernon Broughton smashed him from the blind side and ripped away the ball as they fell to the turf. Gibbs initially was ruled down by contact, but after review, it was determined that the football was dislodged before Gibbs' knee was down. The Saints were successful on the challenge, and took possession at their 40-yard line with 7:40 left in the half.
The jubilation was short-lived. Five plays later, on second-and-6 from the Lions 40, Shough and Fant got their signals crossed and Shough's pass attempt went directly to Detroit safety Chuck Clark, who returned it 1 yard to the 36. The teams exchanged punts before the Lions ran out the final 20 seconds of the half.

WEEK 2: New Orleans Saints 24, Baltimore Ravens 17; September 20 @ M&T Bank Stadium - Scared money doesn't make money, and if the New Orleans Saints have shown nothing else in the first two weeks of the regular season, it's that they're not scared money in the 2026 season.
A week after going for a two-point conversion and the win in an overtime road loss to Detroit, Saints Head Coach Kellen Moore rolled the dice on fourth-and-goal from the 1 with 92 seconds left in a 17-17 game against the Ravens at M&T Stadium in Baltimore.
"Fortunate for us to get that. Obviously was gonna go for it in that situation – a chance to score a touchdown, (and) if not, we're forcing them to be on the minus one and go the long way," Moore said. "But it felt like we could get it done there."
New Orleans quarterback Tyler Shough strained, muscled and was shoved across the goal line plane – a call that withstood the replay official's review – and that score stood as the game winner when safety Julian Blackmon intercepted Lamar Jackson's pass at the Saints' seven-yard line with 13 seconds left.

New Orleans offered another riveting performance, and this time, all three phases played a significant role as the Saints eliminated the turnovers (from three against the Lions in the opener to none Sunday) and shrunk the penalties to five, for 35 yards.

Shough completed 27 of 34 passes for 252 yards and one touchdown, ran for 23 yards and one touchdown and received big-time assistance from his offensive line (which lost LT Kelvin Banks Jr. to an ankle injury with 2:02 left in the third quarter), WR Chris Olave (eight catches for 86 yards and a touchdown) and TE Juwan Johnson (four catches, 66 yards), who made several critical catches in the second half.

Defensively, the Saints sacked the elusive Jackson three times (1.5 by explosive EDGE Chase Young), held the Ravens to only one field goal in the second half and clamped down for four quarters: A week after the Ravens posted 41 points and 500-plus yards, they were limited to 17 points and 312 total net yards.

On special teams, K Daniel Carlson made all three field goal attempts (23, 47 and 51 yards), rookie WR Barion Brown had a 53-yard kickoff return to set up a field goal that pulled New Orleans to within 14-6 at halftime, and recently-signed LS Scott Daly was flawless in his Saints debut.

All in all, it was the kind of performance – on the road, against a quality opponent – that the Saints have believed themselves capable of rendering since they began OTAs.

As was the case in the opener against the Lions, New Orleans trailed by one score at halftime; 14-6 against the Ravens after 7-0 versus the Lions. And, again defensively, New Orleans did what it could to keep an explosive offensive off the scoreboard.

The Ravens' touchdowns came courtesy of a 1-yard run by Derrick Henry and a 23-yard pass from Jackson to Rashod Bateman with 24 seconds left in the half to give Baltimore a 14-3 lead.

But Brown returned the kickoff 53 yards to the Baltimore 44-yard line, Shough ran for 2 yards and completed a 13-yard pass to Devaughn Vele to set up Carlson's 47-yard field goal as time expired in the half.

Both Shough and Jackson were precise in the first half; Shough completed 12 of 15 passes for 102 yards, and Jackson connected on 13 of 16 throws for 171 yards and the touchdown. Vele caught three passes for 53 yards in the half.

The Saints helped bottle themselves up with three penalties (for 25 yards), and three plays that were tackled for loss. One of those was a fumbled toss attributed to Shough, but recovered by running back Travis Etienne Jr. for a seven-yard loss.

Those errors mainly disappeared in the second half, when the Saints outscored Baltimore 18-3 and scored on three of four possessions – two touchdowns, a two-point conversion run by Etienne and a field goal from Carlson.

WEEK 3: Las Vegas Raiders 35, New Orleans Saints 27; September 27 @ Caesars Superdome - The speed with which the unraveling occurred was "warp."

Each of the New Orleans Saints' four fourth-quarter possessions resulted in a turnover Sunday against the Raiders in the Caesars Superdome: Lost fumble, interception, lost fumble and lost fumble. And what had been a 27-22 lead entering the final 15 minutes became a heavily-assisted, 13-point close for the Raiders in a 35-27 victory that dropped New Orleans (1-2) below .500 and kept Las Vegas (3-0) undefeated.

"I thought we fell short in all three phases," safety Justin Reid said. "There's a couple of plays I fell short. I thought that we played a lot of good football and I thought there were some plays we just left short out there in all three phases. We just can't do that. We had a lot of good things going.

"We're going to learn from this and we're not going to get too down on ourselves, but a lot of guys are upset, a lot of guys are pissed off. I'm pissed off right now. That's OK, because we have high standards for ourselves, we have high standards for what we can do and we're going to step up to the occasion next time."

The standards were being met for a good portion of Sunday's game, New Orleans' home opener.

The Saints posted their first first-quarter score of the season – a two-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Shough to tight end Juwan Johnson – and led 6-3 at the end of the first quarter. And even though the Saints trailed 16-13 at halftime, the offense appeared sharp early with two lengthy touchdown drives (79 yards on 13 plays on the touchdown pass to Johnson, and 72 yards on 10 plays leading to a 3-yard touchdown pass to tight end Noah Fant).

Two more touchdown passes to the tight ends in the third quarter – one yard to Johnson and 16 to Fant – allowed Shough (29 of 42 for 255 yards and four touchdown passes, with an interception and two lost fumbles) to post his single-game high for touchdown passes and gave New Orleans tight ends as many touchdown receptions Sunday (four) as the position generated all last season in 17 games.

But after the Saints took a 27-16 lead on the 16-yarder to Fant with 5:46 left in the third quarter, on a score that came after edge Anfernee Jennings forced a fumble on a kickoff that was recovered by safety Jordan Howden, New Orleans was more imperfect at any stretch of the young season.

The Raiders answered with a quick-strike touchdown drive (71 yards on five plays in 146 seconds) and pulled to within 27-22 with 3:40 left in the quarter; their two-point conversion attempt failed.

The Saints couldn't take advantage when the ensuing kickoff went out of bounds and they began their next possession at their 40, gaining 17 yards and taking a five-yard delay of game penalty before punting, but forced the Raiders to punt after a three-and-out.

The next possession began at the Saints' 39 with 1:36 left in the third and trickled over into the fourth quarter as New Orleans drove to the Raiders' 29. On third-and-four from there, Shough was sacked from behind by Raiders edge Malcolm Koonce while attempting to throw, the football popped free and Maxx Crosby recovered at the Raiders' 45.

Six plays later, Kirk Cousins threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Cody White and the Raiders took a 28-27 lead with 9:21 left.

Shough was intercepted on third-and-6 to end the Saints' next drive, and it was returned 35 yards by cornerback Hezekiah Masses to the Saints' eight-yard line, fumbled by Masses, and recovered by defensive tackle Adam Butler at the four. Cousins threw a four-yard touchdown pass to tight end Brock Bowers three plays later and Las Vegas' lead grew to 35-27.

The next two drives ended on a Shough fumble from the Raiders' 20-yard line, and a Johnson fumble at the Saints 40 to smother the last gasps.

The Saints on Sunday were perfect in the red zone (four for four), perfect on goal-to-go (three for three) and more than healthy on third down (nine for 16). But the turnovers and penalties (eight for 36 yards), several which drew the ire of the Saints' sideline, were devastating.

"It's frustrating, but we're on to the next," said edge rusher Chase Young, who had the third two-sack game of his career, his second as a Saint. "This is the league. We could be better, we know that. We try not to bank our wins off the referees' calls. We may not like a call, but at the end of the day, we try to look past that and just play within the white lines."

WEEK FOUR: Atlanta Falcons 45, New Orleans Saints 24; October 5 @ Caesars Superdome - The Monday night football celebration decisively disintegrated at the "football" part of the program for the Saints.

New Orleans' 45-24 loss to Atlanta in the Caesars Superdome was the wet-blanket conclusion to what began as a festive, reflective day commemorating the 20-year anniversary of the Superdome re-opening after Hurricane Katrina. The Saints produced a season-worst performance in the nationally-televised contest against their division rivals, who evened their record at 2-2 with their second straight win.

After three straight close games, all decided in the fourth quarter or overtime, the Saints gave up a 59-yard touchdown run to Atlanta running back Bijan Robinson on the third play from scrimmage, fell behind 14-0 and never pulled closer than seven points as the Falcons rushed for five touchdowns and 205 yards.

"It's really upsetting when you think about the talent that we have on the team," Saints edge rusher Cameron Jordan said. "I hate that we had a slow start and got punched in the mouths early and we were looking to respond. It's one of those games where we weren't good enough on offense, defense and special teams. And you look in the second half, like, 'fight back.'

"When you have a division rival, it's damn near worth two games. They had an early score with Bijan and at that point, (had) 60 yards on the ground. We've got to be able to figure something out. And you end up letting them - what, 200 yards rushing? That's on the defensive line. You can't look anywhere else. When you have a ground game like that, you have to look at your defensive line and say, hey, we've got to tighten up. It didn't happen this game, so our secondary had to come down and try to focus on the run and that's where they get to have their way. They had their way."

Atlanta totaled 420 yards and averaged 7.5 yards per play on 56 plays.

Offense was just as much of a struggle for New Orleans, which finished with 320 yards and managed just 50 rushing yards. Running back Alvin Kamara ran for 3- and 5-yard touchdowns to raise his franchise-record total to 89, but the Saints averaged 2.6 yards on 19 carries and, again, started slowly.

The first offensive possession ended on a three-and-out, the second on a missed 52-yard field goal attempt by Daniel Carlson and the third, on Kendre Miller's lost fumble - a down-by-contact field ruling that was overturned by Atlanta's challenge.

The Falcons were able to take advantage of the short field and score on a five-play, 22-yard drive as Bijan Robinson scored on a 4-yard run. The Saints forced an incompletion on the drive on fourth-and-4 from their 8-yard line, but cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry drew a holding penalty in the end zone that gave the Falcons first-and-goal at the 4.

Brian Robinson Jr. ran for three touchdowns and quarterback Michael Penix added a passing touchdown as New Orleans never seriously threatened after pulling to within 14-7.

"We didn't shut down, our run defense," Jordan said. "Our run defense didn't show up to play early on - 60-yard touchdown happens. From there, they understand their zone schemes were working, they relied on that. And for whatever reason, we couldn't tighten up our gaps. Our gap integrity has to be at a premium, especially when you're going against a top-tier back like Bijan. Or any running back, the way that we're playing. It just wasn't good enough."

Jordan said the message from Monday's game was a clear one.

"The message is, if you get punched in the chin you tuck your chin and start swinging back."

WEEK FIVE: Minnesota Vikings 23, Saints 13; October 11 @ Caesars Superdome - The New Orleans Saints insist that the ingredients are available. But combining them to create a satisfying result has been a frustratingly elusive endeavor, the latest attempt a 23-13 loss to Minnesota in the Caesars Superdome.

The Saints (1-4) lost their third consecutive game, all in the Superdome, as they searched and again failed to find any sustained mix of consistency and execution against the Vikings (5-0).

"There's 12 opportunities left," edge Cameron Jordan said. "Dudes got to show exactly who they are in times of adversity. Last week we got punched in the mouth? Cool, how do you respond? There's guys that have made business decisions, there's guys that fought through. As a team, we're not disciplined enough at the end of the day. I think, from last week, we learned there's ups and downs of the game. This week, everybody was locked in, everybody focused on how to get this win. We got up going into halftime, you can't come out and give that ball back. You've got to be a disciplined team. You've got to be able to overcome."

In the first two games this season, overcoming was a staple. New Orleans rallied from a 21-0 deficit in a 31-30 loss to Detroit in overtime, and from a 14-6 halftime margin to post a 24-17 victory over Baltimore. But since springing to a 27-16 lead against the Raiders in the third quarter in Week 3, the Saints haven't conjured enough offense, strung together enough defensive stops, protected the football well enough or played clean on special teams consistently enough – all in the same game – to finish a game on top.

The lead was 7-6 on the day QB Drew Brees was inducted into the Saints Ring of Honor, courtesy of a touchdown drive set up by DL Khristian Boyd's forced fumble and edge Chase Young's 27-yard recovery and return. But it was short-lived.

Jayden Price fumbled the opening kickoff of the second half, the Vikings recovered and six plays later, on third-and-6, Kyler Murray threw a 15-yard touchdown to Justin Jefferson for a 13-7 Vikings lead. Saints QB Tyler Shough threw the first of two interceptions to end New Orleans' next drive, and the Vikings drove from the Saints 37 to the 14 on seven plays, took a delay of game penalty, and faced third-and-15 from the 19 with 2:49 left in the third.

Murray's short pass to WR Myles Price gained seven yards, but as CB Martin Emerson Jr. and LB Pete Werner converged to combine for the tackle, Emerson stripped the ball out and S Jonas Sanker recovered. Sanker ran 87 yards untouched down the right sideline – the second-longest fumble return in franchise history – to tie the game at 13-13.

Even that euphoria was short-lived; Daniel Carlson missed the point-after attempt and New Orleans didn't take the lead.

The Vikings drove 70 yards in six plays on their next possession, ending with Aaron Jones' bruising 8-yard touchdown run with 14:06 left in the game, and the Saints didn't again threaten to score against the league's top defense, which entered the game allowing 12.8 points per game.

Defensively, the Saints shrunk the numbers from the 45-24 loss to Atlanta; from 420 yards (205 rushing) and six touchdowns allowed to 364 (153 rushing) and two, and created two turnovers, one returned for a touchdown. But offensively New Orleans totaled 142 yards, including 87 net passing yards by Shough (16 of 25 for 96 yards, no touchdowns and two interception). The touchdown drive – 15 plays, 66 yards, capped by Kendre Miller's 2-yard run – was the lone offensive highlight possession.

"You're living in these red situations, we call them, where you're not in an efficient run or pass situation, you're behind the sticks," left guard David Edwards said. "And so any time you're in that, it just makes it harder on everybody. Our process and our operation has to improve for us to continue to be where we want to go. We got work to do.

"I thought staying on track was going to be one of the main keys for us and as players, we didn't do that. When you're living in second-and-long and third-and-long, that's just hard football to be playing. The touchdown drive that we had we ran it well, we threw it well, we were efficient – that's us. That's us.

"Can we look at that drive and really focus on the great things that we did and build off that? That's what I want to be focused on. We proved that we can do that time in, time out, snap in, snap out. I'm encouraged with that sort of stuff moving forward, because I think that's really who we are."

WEEK 6: New Orleans Saints 34, New York Giants 27; October 18 @ MetLife Stadium - It took most of the first half for the New Orleans Saints to find some of what they've been looking for a good portion of this season, but when they found it, they knew precisely what to do with it against the Giants on Sunday at MetLife Stadium.

And fortunately for the Saints (2-4), they had just enough of it to outlast New York in a 34-27 victory that ended New Orleans' three-game losing streak, made a Herculean comeback stand and prevented what would have been a sizable collapse.

A running game that had been AWOL produced 175 yards and a touchdown.

The special teams rebounded from an opening-game penalty and missed field goal to provide two 50-plus yard field goals, a forced and recovered fumble (linebacker Isaiah Stalbird and tight end Oscar Delp, respectively), and 181 return yards.

The defense gave up a 93-yard touchdown drive, then shut the door for three quarters as it intercepted three passes (two by cornerback Martin Emerson Jr.), sacked Giants quarterbacks five times (1.5 each from edges Chase Young and Carl Granderson) and helped the offense go on a 34-0 run.

And the offense, after some early shooting in the foot, had enough of it left to give the Giants (3-2-1) a big enough kick to help withstand a 17-0 blitz by the Giants in the fourth quarter.

The result allowed the Saints an exhale as they readied to board the flight for Paris and prepare for their game against the Steelers next Sunday.

"Wild NFL games," Saints coach Kellen Moore said. "They always come in different shapes and sizes, so I'm glad our guys found a way to win this game. That's ultimately your No. 1 objective going on the road."

New Orleans followed a familiar pattern as the Giants took a 10-0 lead with 2:27 left in the first half behind a Jameis Winston touchdown pass and field goal. But from there, the Saints began their punchback.

Barion Brown returned the kickoff 41 yards to the Saints' 44-yard line, and after driving 16 yards and stalling, Daniel Carlson kicked a 58-yard field goal to pull the Saints to within 10-3 with 1:18 left in the half.

On the ensuing kickoff return, Stalbird forced a fumble by Giants wide receiver/return specialist Charlie Jones on a 22-yard return that Delp recovered at the Giants' 28-yard line. And after Saints quarterback Tyler Shough scrambled for 25 yards on first down, he threw a two-yard touchdown to rookie wide receiver Bryce Lance on fourth-and-goal to tie the score at halftime.

"That was a huge turnover," Moore said. "Stalbird created that forced fumble and we were able to score right there, tie the ballgame up. And then come out in the second half and play, I thought, a really good middle right there."

The Saints opened the second half with three touchdown drives and a field goal in five possessions – while forcing two punts and intercepting three passes – to create a 34-10 lead with 10:22 left in the fourth quarter.

Then, the Saints exhaled.

The Giants didn't.

New Orleans subbed out a few starters, the Giants switched quarterbacks from Winston to J.J. McCarthy, and the combination of that – plus a lost Saints fumble – started New York on a 17-0 sprint that didn't end until McCarthy's pass was incomplete on fourth-and-1 from the Saints' 14-yard line with six seconds left.

"A couple of guys are kind of managing some stuff, guys that are sore and tried to get a few guys out," Moore said. "And obviously, it didn't work."

What did was a plus-3 turnover margin and perfection in the red zone (three for three). Shough completed 16 of 30 passes for 144 yards, but he didn't commit a turnover and threw three touchdown passes, including a 31-yarder to Alvin Kamara and an 18-yarder to Chris Olave. The toss to Kamara also put him in an exclusive club – he is now one of six players in NFL history to record 5,000+ rushing and receiving yards.

WEEK 7: Pittsburgh Steelers 16, New Orleans Saints 10; October 25 @ Stade de France - Regardless of how enticing and exhilarating a flirtation with danger can be, a long enough dalliance with it will eventually lead to heartbreak, even in the City of Love.

The New Orleans Saints (2-5) found out on Sunday against Pittsburgh (5-2) at Stade de France, dropping a 16-10 decision as they entered their bye week – their third one-score loss this season – in the first NFL game played in Paris.

The Saints caught a break twice in the first half with two overturned fumbles – first on a play involving quarterback Tyler Shough, who fumbled after a tackle by Steelers linebacker T.J. Watt, and then on a fumble by running back Kendre Miller. Shough later connected with Devaughn Vele for a 1-yard touchdown with 1:45 left in the second quarter, the Saints' lone touchdown of the game.

Outside of that score, New Orleans failed to capitalize on their good fortune. On the cleanest drive of the day – 65 yards on 13 plays to open the third quarter, with New Orleans trailing 13-10 and facing second-and-7 from the Steelers' 10-yard line on the 14th play of the drive, having squeezed 7:17 off the clock with eight passes and five runs – Shough's pass attempt for receiver Chris Olave was undercut and intercepted in the right flat by Steelers linebacker Payton Wilson.

Wilson returned it 18 yards to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line, the Steelers drove 51 yards and kicked a 39-yard field goal with 14 seconds left in the quarter and the 16-10 lead stood.

New Orleans' two fourth-quarter drives ended with a missed 52-yard field goal by Daniel Carlson – his fourth miss in 11 attempts this season – and a punt, allowing Pittsburgh to drain the final 5:52. The Steelers converted a third-and-6 on an 8-yard run by quarterback Aaron Rodgers, surpassing the longest gain by any Saints back in an offense that managed just 18 yards on 17 carries. Then, with 69 seconds left, Pittsburgh eschewed a successful 37-yard field goal after the Saints were penalized for being offsides.

"We had our opportunities but ultimately they made a few more plays than us," Saints coach Kellen Moore said. "Margins are small in this game and when you have your opportunities you've got to take advantage of them, and they made more than we did."

Carlson matched Pittsburgh's opening-drive field goal with a 38-yarder in the second quarter, but the Steelers retook the lead with a touchdown drive on their next possession. The big play – a 51-yard pass from Rodgers to receiver D.K. Metcalf – came on third-and-14 from the Steelers' 45-yard line. The 4-yard touchdown pass was a jump ball between 6-foot-7 tight end Darnell Washington and Saints 5-foot-11 cornerback Kool-Aid McKinstry.

New Orleans responded with a 12-play, 52-yard touchdown drive, positioned by Barion Brown's 42-yard kickoff return and ended on the pass from Shough to Vele.

Shough completed 30 of 38 passes for 278 yards and the touchdown, plus the interception. But New Orleans' run game was nonexistent; Shough's 7 yards on three attempts led the way.

Defensively, despite 1.5 sacks each from edge rushers Chase Young (seven this season) and Carl Granderson (5.5), New Orleans allowed 148 rushing yards on 30 carries and Pittsburgh converted 10 of 16 third-down attempts, several on short runs.

BUCKING THE ODDS

The Saints have a long tradition of finding players as free agents signed after the draft who make an impact immediately or after developing their careers initially on the practice squad. Several undrafted Saints on the roster have played key roles on offense, defense and special teams.

Over the past 23 years, the Saints (2018-22: Defensive back J.T. Gray, wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harty and wide receiver/return specialist Rashid Shaheed) and San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers (2003: Guard Kris Dielman, tight end Antonio Gates and wide receiver Kasim Osgood) are the only two teams to have three players signed as undrafted free agents be selected to a Pro Bowl for the team that originally signed them.

In 2025, Granderson enjoyed a productive season, recording 57 total tackles (35 solo), six sacks, ranking third on the team, one pick, four pass breakups. In three games this season, he recorded more than one sack, playing an important role on a front line of a defense that finished ranked ninth in the NFL in opponent net yards per game and sixth in opponent net yards per play.

Granderson has opened all six contests he has played in opposite Chase Young in 2026 and has made significant contributions on both defense and special teams with 24 tackles (16 solo), 5.5 sacks, tied for fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL and a blocked field goal.

Reaching 40 sacks on Oct. 25 against Pittsburgh in Paris, France, becoming the 13th Saint with 40 career quarterback takedowns. Granderson became the ninth player from the 2019 rookie class to total 40 takedowns.

Overall in his career with 111 regular season appearances with 53 starts, he has posted 322 stops (183 solo), 40 sacks, one interception, ten pass breakups, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, three blocked kicks and one special teams stop.

Tight end Juwan Johnson first led Saints tight ends with four touchdown receptions in 2021, converting to the position that offseason after playing wideout in college and as a rookie in 2020, signing as an undrafted free agent from Oregon. Johnson led Saints tight ends with 50 receptions for a club-best 548 yards in 2024, adding three TD grabs. He ranks first on the Saints with 20 receiving touchdowns over the past five seasons, tied for sixth over that period among NFL tight ends. In his career, Johnson has played in 90 games (47 starts), making 248 receptions for 2,759 yards with 24 TDs.

In 2025, Johnson finished ranked fifth among tight ends in receiving and third in receiving yards with a career-high 77 grabs for a career-best 889 yards with three touchdowns. His 245 receptions as a tight end (four additional were as a WR in 2020) are ranked third among the position all-time for the club. His 249 career catches are second among Saints originally signed as an undrafted free agent.

SAINTS TIGHT END RECEPTIONS LEADERS

Tight End	Career Receptions
Jimmy Graham (2010-14, 2023)	392
Hoby Brenner (1981-93)	267
Juwan Johnson (2021-)	245

Saints UDFA	Career Receptions
RB Pierre Thomas (2007-14)	327
Juwan Johnson (2021-)	249

In 2026, Johnson is ranked third on the Saints in receiving with 26 grabs for 255 yards (9.8 avg.) with three touchdowns, which is tied for the team lead.

Signed following the 2024 NFL Draft, linebacker Isaiah Stalbird played at Nebraska (2019) and South Dakota State (2020-23). He appeared in 64 games in his college career and made 251 tackles, 18.5 for loss, three sacks, an interception, 19 pass breakups, five forced fumbles, two recoveries and three blocked punts for the 2022 and 2023 FCS National Champions.

In 2025, Stalbird had a team-high 19 coverage stops and leads the club with ten special teams tackles and one coverage forced fumble in 2026. In the Oct. 18 win against the New York Giants, Stalbird made a game-changing play in the second quarter, when he forced Giants WR/RS Charlie Jones to fumble to set up a Saints touchdown that would tie the score near the end of the half.

The only player on the 53-man roster signed by the club following the 2026 NFL Draft, the club inked running back CJ Donaldson out of Ohio State, whe he completed his college career leading the Buckeyes with ten rushing touchdowns in 2025. Donaldson has excelled in a short yardage role through seven games, with three third-and-one conversions in 2026. Donaldson has carried 17 times for 81 yards, while chipping in six special teams tackles.

2025 DRAFT RECAP

The New Orleans Saints 2025 draft class, the first under Head Coach Kellen Moore, featured eight players contributing to the team's 53-man roster at the end of the season, three offensive players, as well as three defenders, with four (left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr., cornerback Quincy Riley, safety Jonas Sanker and quarterback Tyler Shough) starting in the regular season finale at the Atlanta Falcons and tight end Moliki Matavao and linebacker Danny Stutsman playing significant snaps. On offense, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis split the selections among four different positions.

Defensively, New Orleans added players at four different positions as the unit makes the switch to Defensive Coordinator Brandon Staley's 3-4 scheme, a safety, a linebacker and a cornerback currently contributing. With Sanker posting his second interception of the season in the December 21 win against the Jets, for three total takeaways on the season, the most by a Saints rookie since 2021.

2025 saw significant contributions from most of the rookie class. Banks opened all 17 games at one of the NFL's most challenging positions. Riley played in all 17 games with five starts and recorded 34 tackles, one interception, ten pass breakups and one forced fumble for the NFL's fourth-ranked pass defense. Sanker played in all 17 games with 16 starts and finished second on the team with 78 stops to go with three takeaways and six pass breakups. Shough started the last eight games of the season and completed 221-of-327 passes (67.6 pct.) for 2,834 yards with ten touchdowns, a 91.3 passer rating and a club-best three rushing touchdowns.

2026 has shown further growth from the class, headlined on offense by Shough who ranks among league leaders in all major passing categories by completing 183-of-273 passes (67.0 pct.) for 1,721 yards with 13 touchdown passes and one rushing touchdown. Sanker and CB Quincy Riley have cemented key roles in the secondary, while DL Vernon Broughton has been a key member of the team's rotation up front.

Kelvin Banks Jr. was selected with the ninth overall pick out of Texas. A three-year starter who opened all 42 games he played in at left tackle for the Longhorns from 2022-24, Banks was the 2024 Outland Trophy winner and a unanimous All-American selection. In his first season, Banks lined up at the position that he manned flawlessly as a college standout, facing weekly challenges from some of the NFL's elite pass rushers. He was a consensus All-Rookie selection and was the only Saints offensive lineman to open every contest. Surrendering only four sacks, when often left on an island, for rookie tackles who started at least 16 of their team's contests, Banks gave up the fewest takedowns.

RT Taliese Fuaga, Oregon State (first round) - Selected with the 14th overall pick, the Saints were able to address an immediate need, while also acquiring a cornerstone for the future. Fuaga was an anchor on the Saints offensive line in his rookie campaign, seamlessly moving over to the left tackle position for his first NFL season, where he opened every game for an offense that improved in every rushing metric. Starting all 17 games, he was the first Saint to start every game in his rookie year at the offensive line's most challenging position since J.T. Taylor in 1978. In 2025, Fuaga moved back to his natural right tackle position, starting 13 games as the anchor to that side of the line.

In 2026, Fuaga has played every snap at right tackle for a Saints offense that has found improvement in several statistical categories crucial to production, such as third down conversion rate, first downs and red zone touchdown percentage. His blocking helped spur the team to gain a season-high 175 rushing yards for the team in the October 18 34-27 win over the New York Giants.

CB Kool-Aid McKinstry, Alabama (second round) - Selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft with the 41st overall pick, McKinstry arrived in New Orleans having covered many of the nation's top wideouts in the SEC for three years. In 2023, the consensus first-team All-American was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award in his final campaign, making 32 tackles and seven passes defensed.

Opening every contest in his second season in 2025, he recorded 76 tackles (59 solo) with three interceptions and a club-best 17 pass breakups, tied for sixth in the National Football League and third in the NFC. The Pinson, Ala. native recorded the first two picks of his career in the October 5, 2025 win over the New York Giants, capturing NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career. In 39 career games with 33 starts, he has totals of 140 stops (105 solo), three picks, 29 pass breakups and one special teams tackle.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

Saints special teams benefited from the elevation of Phil Galiano to coordinator, after serving as assistant special teams coach for five-and-a-half seasons before taking over coordination of the unit midway through the 2024 season. During Galiano's tenure with the Saints dating back to the 2019 campaign, the New Orleans special teams units have consistently ranked among the National Football Leagu's leaders in placekicking, coverage and return units, producing Pro Bowlers and Associated Press All-Pros, while also setting various club records in placekicking, punting, return game and coverage units.

Under Galiano's direction, the club has committed to a transition of a mix of seasoned veterans and several promising youngsters to help in the team's kicking game units.

Black and Gold special teams have beens upplemented by some key additions in free agency at the punter and kicker positions, while also building up the return game and coverage units through the draft and other avenues in 2026, where Galiano has a track record of success in identifying and developing contributors.
