DAN MORGAN

THE ROAD HOME

Dan Morgan, a former first-round selection by the Panthers (2001), was named President of Football Operations/General Manager on January 22, 2024 after originally re-joining the organization in 2021 as Assistant General Manager for three seasons (2021-23). Prior to his return, Morgan spent three years (2018-20) with the Buffalo Bills as Director of Player Personnel. While with Buffalo, the team made two playoff appearances, including a trip to the 2020 AFC Championship. Morgan's front office experience began in Seattle (2010). In his second season with the Seahawks, he was named Assistant Director of Pro Personnel, a position he held for four seasons (2011-14), including their Super Bowl XLVIII victory. Later, he was promoted to Director of Pro Personnel (2015) and was responsible for guiding the pro and advance scouting efforts for the club.

HOMEGROWN LEADERSHIP

Selected 11th overall by the Panthers in the 2001 NFL Draft, General Manager/President of Football Operations Dan Morgan played seven seasons for the Panthers (2001-07) and tallied 390 tackles and 11 takeaways. As part of a defense that led the Panthers to a Super Bowl appearance following the 2003 season, Morgan was selected to the Pro Bowl after posting a single-season high 102 tackles.

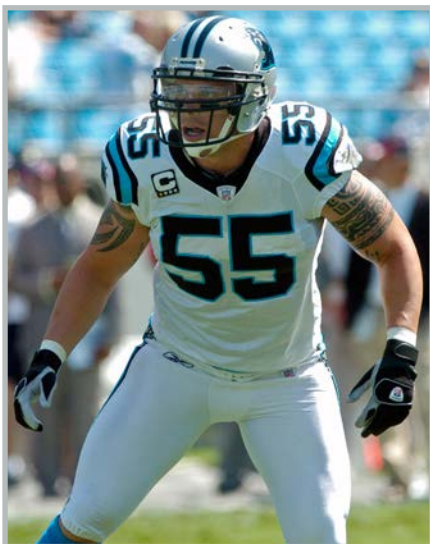

He concluded that season with 25 tackles in Super Bowl XXXVIII, a franchise postseason record.

ROSTER RECONSTRUCTION

In just his two seasons as President of Football Operations/General Manager, over 80% of the roster at the end of the 2025 season was acquired by Morgan. Of the 15 players not acquired before Morgan became GM, 11 were re-signed/extended by him, including notable multi-year extensions for DT Derrick Brown, CB Jaycee Horn, RB Chuba Hubbard, T Taylor Moton and TE Tommy Tremble.

2026 OFFSEASON

- Before free agency began, the Panthers brass made it a priority to bring back several key players from 2025, including WR David Moore, S Isaiah Simmons, OLB Thomas Incoom, LB Claudin Cherelus, OLB Trevis Gipson Sr., S Nick Scott, P Sam Martin and LS JJ Jansen.
- Once the league year began, Carolina was aggressive in bringing in some of the top talent on the market, led by OLB Jaelan Phillips and LB Devin Lloyd. Phillips has totaled 28 sacks over five seasons with Miami (2021-25) and Philadelphia (2025), while Lloyd's nine interceptions over the past four seasons with Jacksonville (2022-25) are the second most among all linebackers in that span.

- After the initial wave of free agency, the Panthers brought back versatile OL Brady Christensen and signed WR Jalen Coker to a three-year extension. Coker, originally signed as an undrafted free agent out of Holy Cross in 2024, marks one of Morgan's greatest finds, becoming his first drafted/signed player coming out of college to earn an extension.
- In the Draft, the Panthers found value around seven selections, four on the defensive side of the ball and three on offense. The picks were highlighted by T Monroe Freeling (first round), DT Lee Hunter (second), WR Chris Brazzell II (third), CB Will Lee III (fourth), C Sam Hecht (fifth), S Zakae Wheatley (fifth) and LB Jackson Kuwatch (seventh).

DAVE CANALES

CANALES AT THE HELM

Dave Canales was named the head coach of the Carolina Panthers on January 25, 2024, becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Canales came to Carolina after serving as offensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2023). He spent his first 13 seasons in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks (2010-22) in various roles on the offensive side of the ball.

In 2025, Canales' second in Carolina, he led the Panthers to an NFC South title after a 1-3 start, becoming just the 10th team to win their division after a 1-3 start over the past 20 seasons. The Panthers, who won five games in 2024, improved by three wins for the second consecutive season, as Canales joined Nick Sirianni (Philadelphia 2021-22), Anthony Lynn (Los Angeles Chargers 2017-18), and Jack Del Rio (Oakland 2015-16) as the only four coaches to earn that accomplishment in the last 10 years. En route to the division title, Carolina won seven one-score games, tied for the third most in the league and four wins after trailing at halftime, tied for the third most in the league.

Canales joined Dom Capers (1996) and John Fox (2003) as the only Carolina head coaches to appear in the postseason in one of their first two seasons, with 2025 marking the 12th time Canales has coached in the playoffs in his 16 NFL seasons. Canales has never missed the postseason in consecutive seasons, coaching in 21 playoff games in his career, including the Super Bowl XLVIII victory with Seattle.

Under Canales' guidance, several players reached milestones in 2025. WR Tetairon McMillan earned AP Rookie of the Year, leading all rookie receivers with 1,014 receiving yards and totaling the third-most receptions with 70, while RB Rico Dowdle recorded a career-best 1,373 scrimmage yards. QB Bryce Young also established career highs with eight wins, 3,011 passing yards, a 63.6 completion percentage and 23 touchdown passes. In 2025, the Panthers defense allowed 77.3 yards fewer per game, the 13th-best single-season improvement by an NFL team in the last 25 years. The unit improved historically in stopping both the run and pass, as Carolina allowed almost 21 fewer passing yards per game, while the run defense improved by 56.5 yards per game, the ninth-largest decrease in the last 25 seasons.

CB Jaycee Horn was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl, tying for second in the league with five interceptions, while teammate Mike Jackson added a career-high four picks. DT Derrick Brown totaled a career-best five sacks and tied for the lead among all defensive linemen with seven passes defended. S Tre'von Moehrig led all defensive backs with 14 tackles for loss in his first season in Carolina, registering the highest total for NFL defensive backs in a season since 2016.

ROAD TO CAROLINA

Canales came to Carolina after serving one season as the offensive coordinator for Tampa Bay (2023) and 13 seasons with Seattle (2010-22) in various roles on the offensive side of the ball.

In 2023 with Tampa Bay, several players recorded career-highs as the team won the NFC South division and reached the divisional round of the playoffs after defeating the reigning NFC Champion, the Philadelphia Eagles, in the Wild Card round. QB Baker Mayfield set career-highs in passing yards (4,044), completion percentage (64.3%), touchdowns (28) and completions (364). He was one of just two quarterbacks in the NFL to throw 27 or more touchdowns and 10 or fewer interceptions on the season.

Canales joined the Buccaneers after spending the past 13 seasons with the Seattle Seahawks (2010-22), where he helped the organization make 10 playoff appearances, two conference championships and a Super Bowl XLVIII title. Canales originally joined the Seahawks as an offensive quality control coach (2010-12) before being elevated to assistant quarterbacks coach (2013-14) and later wide receivers coach (2015-17), quarterbacks coach (2018-19, 2022) and pass game coordinator (2020-21).

As quarterbacks coach in 2022, Canales guided QB Geno Smith to his first career Pro Bowl selection, in addition to receiving Comeback Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press and Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA). Smith was also named the NFL's Most Improved Player by the PFWA after leading the NFL with a 69.8% completion percentage and setting career highs in completions (399), passing yards (4,282) and passing touchdowns (30).

The Seahawks excelled offensively during Canales' tenure in Seattle, recording 7.61 passing yards per attempt and 4.53 rushing yards per attempt over the 13-year run. Seattle was the only offense to rank in the top five in both of those categories during that span. During Canales' time in Seattle, former Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson joined Peyton Manning as the only players in league history with 3,000+ passing yards and 20+ passing touchdowns in each of their first 10 seasons.

COORDINATORS

EJIRO EVERO

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Ejiro Evero has overseen the Panthers defense since joining the staff in 2023. Over his last four seasons as a defensive coordinator, Evero's defenses ranked in the top-10 twice, while he also presided over one of the 15 biggest defensive improvements since 2001 during the 2025 season. Overall, in his three seasons with the Panthers (2023-25), Evero's defenses have combined to allow just 200.1 yards per game passing, the fifth lowest average in that span. Carolina has allowed just 216 explosive pass plays (16+ yards) in those three years, tied for the eighth fewest in the league, including a top-10 rank in 2025. In 2025, the Panthers defense allowed 77.3 yards per game less, the 13th best single-season improvement by an NFL team in the last 25 years. Evero led improvements by both the run and pass defense, as Carolina allowed almost 21 less passing yards per game, while the run defense improved by 56.5 yards per game, the ninth-largest decrease in the last 25 seasons. With the return of defensive team captain DT Derrick Brown, who missed all but one game with injury the previous season, as well as a second-straight Pro Bowl season from CB Jaycee Horn, the Panthers defense forced 21 takeaways, tied for the 10th most in the league. Horn, who tied for the lead among all NFL corners with five, and CB Mike Jackson combined for nine of the team's eighth-ranked 15 interceptions. Last year also represented a single-season high in tackles for safeties Tre'von Moehrig and Nick Scott, with Moehrig's 14 tackles for loss establishing a high for NFL defensive backs in a season since 2016. Prior to joining Carolina, Evero served as the defensive coordinator for Denver (2022) and on the defensive staffs for the L.A. Rams (2017-21, including a Super Bowl LVI victory), Green Bay (2016), San Francisco (2011-15) and Tampa Bay (2007-09). He also coached collegiately at University of Redlands (2010) and UC Davis (2005-06).

19TH SEASON 4TH SEASON

BRAD IDZIK

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Brad Idzik, entering his third season with Carolina as the team's offensive coordinator, played a pivotal role in one of the most improved offenses in the NFL last year, working closely with Head Coach Dave Canales as the Panthers captured an NFC South division title. Idzik and Canales have worked together for the past seven seasons in various roles and that continuity fueled the growth of a young and impactful offensive core. Idzik helped oversee the Panthers make major strides on offense creating balance across both the passing and rushing attack. QB Bryce Young delivered a breakout season in 2025, establishing career highs in passing yards (3,011), touchdown passes (23) and passer rating (87.8), while also leading the team to a career-best eight wins as a starter. Six of those victories came in game-winning drives engineered by Young, tied for the second-most in the NFL last season. Since entering the league in 2023, his 12 game-winning drives are the most among all quarterbacks. Rookie WR Tetairoa McMillan quickly emerged as one of the league's most dynamic young playmakers. McMillan set a new franchise rookie record with 1,014 receiving yards, led all rookies with seven touchdown receptions, and ranked third with 70 catches. His explosiveness stood out, as 27 of his 70 receptions went for 16 or more yards, the most explosive receptions and explosive plays by any rookie in the NFL this season. Behind a productive offensive line and a physical rushing attack, Carolina also found consistent success on the ground. The Panthers totaled 1,977 rushing yards, their most in a season since 2022. Rico Dowdle (1,076) and Chuba Hubbard (511) both surpassed 500 rushing yards, marking the seventh time in franchise history the team produced multiple 500-yard rushers and the first time since 2011. Prior to joining Carolina, Idzik spent time on the staffs of Tampa Bay (2023), Seattle (2019-22) and Stanford (2014-18).

8TH SEASON 3RD SEASON

TRACY SMITH

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Tracy Smith enters his third season as the Panthers special teams coordinator after serving the previous three seasons as the assistant special teams coach for the Seattle Seahawks (2021-23). Smith has served on NFL coaching staffs for the past 18 seasons. During the 2025 season, Smith spearheaded the development of undrafted rookie K Ryan Fitzgerald, who converted 24-of-29 field goal attempts (82.8%), the second-most made field goals by a rookie in team history. Additionally, Fitzgerald tied for the NFL lead with four game-winning field goals, tied for the most by any rookie since 1970. Smith also handled P Sam Martin, who was one of six punters with at least 25 punts inside the 20-yard line (27) and three-or-fewer touchbacks (three). In his first season with the Panthers (2024), Smith oversaw a unit that led the NFL in opponent kickoff return average (24.3) and tied for fourth in opponent punt return average (6.8). K Eddy Piñeiro became the third-most accurate kicker in NFL history, with a career field goal percentage of 88.1% (111-for-126) and finished the season ranked seventh in Panthers history for all-time points scored (320). Following changes to the league's kickoff rules, RB Raheem Blackshear ranked third in the NFL in kickoff return average (25.5), the fifth-highest mark in team history among qualified returners. Throughout Smith's three seasons with the Seahawks (2021-23), Seattle's special teams unit ranked in the top 10 in a number of categories, including fifth in net punting average (43.3), fifth in kickoff return average (24.5) and tied for ninth in field goals made (86), while their punt and kickoff coverage teams ranked first and sixth in that span, respectively. Under Smith, kicker Jason Myers was selected to the 2022 Pro Bowl and made a franchise-record 37 consecutive field goals from 2019-21, tied for the fifth-longest streak in NFL history.
